

Maria (49)
Bilingual community health worker
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Community college + healthcare certificate</li> <li>• Bilingual (Spanish dominant)</li> <li>• Smartphone from her phone service, home computer primarily her husband's, for his business</li> </ul>	"I love this. It's all here ... when I can find it."
Ability Prefers Spanish language sites, when she can find them; needs information and instructions written clearly	"When a site is confusing, I just leave."
Aptitude Adventurous, but not very proficient; husband and daughter set up bookmarks for her	"When I hear and see it, health information makes more sense."
Attitude Thinks it's wonderful to be able to have her favorite websites with her at all times
Assistive Technology Skype Translation site
17.8 million people in the U.S. speak English "less than well."  Hispanic U.S. adults are more likely to use mobile devices and mobile search. They are more likely to take mobile pictures and video.	